SURPRISE ON THE MENU

Regulars said they were shocked to learn of the Home Office raid on Yeung's Chinese Restaurant in Preston Street - now its owners could be in hot water

BY GARETH ARNOLD

A POPULAR restaurant could be facing prosecution after allegedly using illegal immigrants to work there.

The Home Office confirmed the owners of Yeung's Chinese Restaurant in Preston Street, Faversham, were targeted following a tip off.

Five men were arrested during the raid, which happened just an hour before the restaurant was due to open for the evening trade.

The arrests have surprised people in the town, many of whom know Yeung's as a large, friendly restaurant, geared towards families, with a popular all-you-can-eat buffet.

Regular customer Jenny Bannister told us: "There were always plenty of helpful staff there and it was always busy.

"We just assumed it was a family-run business."
Witnesses told Yourswale the men were driven away in silver, unmarked people carriers and all were wearing white and black waiters' uniforms.

The Home Office issued a statement saying none of the men had permits to work in the UK and all face deportation.

A spokesman said the restaurant owner may now face prosecution for illegally employing the men, but investigations were continuing.

Three of the men appeared before Sittingbourne magistrates on Friday, two days after they were arrested, to face charges of having false ID papers and are being held on remand. The other two were still being questioned by immigration officers as Yourswale went to press.

Order and immigration regional director for London and the south east Tony Smith said: "Our message to employers is simple – if you employ illegal workers you could be named and shamed and face criminal charges."

Attempts by Yourswale to contact the restaurant as we went to press went unanswered.

School sports hall gets star treatment

BY GARETH ARNOLD

DAME Kelly Holmes opened a new sports hall and computer suite at Lower Halstow Primary School last week which teachers hope will become an asset to the whole community.

The Olympic double-gold medallist visited the school last Thursday, chatting with children and teachers, following the opening ceremony.

Head teacher Cathy Walker said: "She was fantastic – very open, very welcoming - the children weren't fazed by her at all.

"She joined in with activities and answered questions; it was so good to see a celebrity willing to do that.'

Dame Kelly spoke to the children about their sporting interests, and took a tour of the school and its new facilities with teachers and representatives from Kent County Council.

As well as a new hall, the new extension includes a computer suite, plus a library. The project also saw a remodelling of the school building for easier access and computers and whiteboards for all classrooms.

It is hoped the sports hall, financed by Kent County Council, Sport England and Lottery Sport grants, will enable the school and local community to take part in a range of indoor activities.

The total project cost around £1.5 million with KCC contributing £840,000; a total of £219,300 from the sports grant and the remainder from the sale of school land.

Mrs Walker said: "It's really raised the profile of PE in the school curriculum, but it also allows us to to do a whole host of after-school activities.

We can not only invite other schools to take part in sporting events, but run activities for the whole community."

Several community groups are already using the hall, including a badminton club, and dance classes.

Mrs Walker said: "There's always talk about young people not having enough to do. We hope this will help.'

KCC cabinet member for education resources, operations and skills Mark Dance said: "It is so important for children to find pleasure in sports of all kinds from an early age."

Dame Kelly, from Hildenborough, near Tonbridge, won both the 800m and 1500m gold medals at the Athens 2004 Olympic Games. She retired from athletics in 2005.

NEWS IN BRIEF

Call to the wild as nature reserve opens

A HUGE variety of wild birds which previously thrived on wetlands in Seasalter could soon be making a comeback.

A new nature reserve of more than 100 hectares has just been created following an agreement between the RSPB, Canterbury council, Swale council and Natural England.

Species such as lapwings and redshanks which used to flourish in the area have all but disappeared.

Staff spot cocaine swap in night spot

EAGLE-EYED security watched wraps of cocaine being passed between toilet cubicles in a night club.

As a result they searched Christopher Smith, 22, of Briton Road, Faversham, at Ba-Bas and found he had 545 milligrams of the drug, worth £40, on him.

He claimed it was amphetamine and had bought it in Faversham. He was intending to smoke it.

Deaf say Hi to new lipreading group

A LIPREADING support group has been set up in Faversham.

Hi Kent, the charity that works with the deaf and hard-of-hearing community in Kent, is setting up the group, run by a qualified tutor, to help people learn the vital skill.

It will meet on Monday afternoons from 1pm to 3pm, starting on Monday, and will run initially until Christmas. The group meets at Brents Tavern in Faversham.

Sick trio subjected boy and girl to hours of abuse

Child rapist and 'fixer' behind bars

A FORMER soldier who raped young children and offered them to other paedophiles through the internet has been jailed for at least five-and-a-half years.

Steven Horton, 44, a warehouse manager from Kemsley, was part of a child abuse sex ring caged this week for a total of at least 18-and-a-half years.

Lovers Monica McCanch, 55, from Ash, and Archibald Wood, 59, from Tavistock in Devon, were jailed with him at Maidstone Crown Court.

Businesswoman McCanch was handed a six year jail term, retired Army major and school governor Wood got seven years, while Horton was given an indefinite sentence — and told he would serve at least five and a half years.

and a nair years.

Before the hearing they had pleaded guilty to 41 charges, including child rape, causing a child under 13 to engage in sexual activity, arranging a child sex offence, and making and distribution indeed to improve a fabildary claimed to have been an intelligence officer with the Welsh Guards during the Falklands War, and teacher's wife McCanch had enjoyed a secret affair for more than a decade.

They posed as a couple called "Jack" and "Liz" when they indulged in sex acts with two children they met through a stranger over the internet.

The lovers had travelled 170 miles from Devon to a house in Fleet, Hampshire, to meet Horton and a 12-year-old girl and 13-year-old boy he was offering on the internet for abuse in June 2005.

The trio subjected the children to sexual abuse lasting several hours.

Their sickening activities were revealed when Horton's unsuspecting partner discovered incriminating emails on his computer while filling out a job application and called police.

Horton, described as the "fixer", was arrested last October and immediately admitted his role in the abuse.

Judge Jeremy Carey told him in jailing him: "You do indeed represent a serious risk to members of the public."

Outside the court investigating officer Det Sgt Dave Shipley said the trail of paedophiles spanning out from Horton ran into hundreds in several countries.

He said: "It is like a tree which has Steven Horton at its root, sprouting new branches all the time.

Brave fireman honoured for off-duty rescue

A QUICK-thinking firefighter has been honoured for rescuing a man from a car leaking petrol after a road crash.

Martin Charlton, who was off-duty at the time, went to the aid of the van driver after realising the life-threatening situation he was in.

The Sittingbourne firefighter was presented with a certificate of commendation for his bravery at Kent Fire Service headquarters in Maidstone this week.

Mr Charlton stopped on the hard shoulder of the London-bound carriageway of the M2 after witnessing the crash near Faversham on March 16. He ran to the van with a doctor who also pulled over and assisted him in giving first aid to the man trapped in the van.

But after noticing the vehicle was leaking fuel excessively and that the fuel pump was still running, the firefighter realised the driver would have to be moved in case there was an explosion.

BY SIMON ROBINSON

Helped by another motorist, Mr Charlton removed the van's windscreen and then carried the driver away from the wreckage, enabling the doctor to attend to his injuries until an ambulance arrived.

The firefighter then called to the emergency services and supplied detailed information for the oncoming fire crews.

He was congratulated at the ceremony in Maidstone by chief fire officer Charlie Hendry.

Lost Alsation is returned

A FAMILY has been reunited with their missing pet thanks to Swale council's dog warden.

Locals in Selling called in animal control officer Tim Oxley after they saw a wild dog roaming the area.

wild dog roaming the area.

The Alsatian had been sleeping in a greenhouse and so the dog warden asked its owners to feed the new resident so it would return to the same spot.

After capturing the dog Mr Oxley realised it was not wild, but a friendly three-year-old German Shepherd bitch.

He contacted local councils to find out if they had a missing dog on their books and discovered the dog was called Diamond and had been missing from her home in Charing since late July.

Mr Oxley said: "It's an absolute joy to see owners reunited with their pets. We have no idea why Diamond ended up in Swale, but dogs do sometimes just wander off and get lost."

Anyone in the Swale district wanting to report a stray animal can call the dog warden on 01795 417850.

Lucky escape as transit topples in tank car park

A VAN driver was lucky to escape serious injury after a crash in Whitstable last week.

The Ford Transit van, containing three small propane cylinders, careered off Harbour Road, and fell eight-feet into the Gorrel Tank car park, landing on its side on top of two parked cars.

Crew manager Nick Salt said: "He was lucky there were cars underneath to be honest, and that it landed on its side.

"Fortunately, he was wearing a seatbelt, so was able to unclip and climb out."

Subway idea could bring taggers into the open

A GRAFFITI subway was one of the controversial proposals discussed at a recent city council meeting.

The suggestion was made during a debate on graffiti in Canterbury, which many councillors want to see more tightly controlled.

A graffiti subway would provide a place where artists could paint legally, in the hope this would deter them from tagging other buildings in the area. However, a panel member said they would like to see "a more positive approach" to the problem.

Spag bol and cottage pie top of students' menus

recordCanterbury's students are not making the grade in the kitchen according to the latest survey on freshers' eating habits.

A survey of more than 1,000 people conducted across the South East by the English Beef and Lamb Executive has revealed microwave meals and pies grace more than 50 per cent of student shopping baskets and 34 per cent rely on ready prepared dishes, with spaghetti bolognese and shepherds/cottage pie at the top of the class.

£50k spend planned to brighten up Christmas

THE FUTURE is bright for Canterbury's Christmas lights as more money than ever before is put towards the city's seasonal illuminations.

In an effort to increase Christmas spirit and spending over this year's holiday season, not only will there be the usual lights in and around St George's Street, but more are planned for Burgate.

The total amount of cash being spent is £25,000, with £20,000 from the city council and £5,000 from city centre traders.

Residents form group to protect homes

Petition urges rethink to sea defences plan

MORE than 60 homes, and large areas of special scientific interest, could be under threat if a shoreline management plan is not altered, council engineers have warned.

Now angry residents have formed a fighting group to protect their homes along the stretch of coast running from Faversham Creek to Seasalter after plans pushed to move coastal defences further inland - leaving houses at the mercy of the waves.

The proposals are part of the South East Coastal Group's Shoreline Management Plan for Kent which is examining shoreline recommendations over the next 50 years.

Canterbury council's engineering manager Ted Edwards said: "The beach protects them from all but the worst storms. Although they are at risk, most people accept that.

"What they don't accept is moving the bund behind them further back and doing no more work to maintain the beach.

BY Gareth Arnold

"This would blight their houses from then onwards.

At present, the consultation, commissioned by DEFRA, has concluded that managed realignment of the shoreline – moving the sea defences further back – is the best medium term policy for that particular part of the coast and could be implemented in as little as 20 years.

Residents in the affected Faversham Road area have now lodged a formal objection to the proposal, supported by a 1,500-strong signature petition, which could see defences deliberately run down and even breached.

Chairman of the newly-formed Faversham Road Residents' Association Chris Blunkell said: "If there's a risk to your house in 20 years time then it puts a blight on the future. We don't know what 20 years time looks like for us in real terms.

Behind the houses lies a freshwater marsh,

Mr Blunkell said: "We all know there is a risk of flooding, but it does not warrant the current proposal. The reason we live here is that it is an amazing place. It's not just about our financial well-being.

"We don't agree with the view that rural equals expendable. It's easy to see how people might look at densely populated urban areas and see them as more worthy of spending

SHORELINE Management Plans for this stretch of coast form part of a major project which maps and examines all 6,000 kilometres of coastline around England and Wales - and you can see the area covered by our report above

Key among its concerns are flood and coastal erosion risk management.

Householders in Faversham Road would like to see the proposals outlined in the article above, replaced with a promise to "hold the line" around the road in the medium term. This would mean maintaining that section of coast as it is for at least 50 years.

Are we turning our back on the homeless?

SHOCKING examples of apathy BY GARETH ARNOLD towards the plight of the homeless have left a charity branding Canterbury as suffering from "compassion fatigue".

The charity Scrine revealed those sleeping rough have even been assaulted in shops in broad daylight with onlookers failing to go to their aid.

Scrine is a charity providing support to homeless people throughout the county. It finds accommodation, provides education and skills training, and helps people deal with drug and alcohol addictions.

From speaking with its homeless clients, charity workers have uncovered a worrying trend in the city, claiming the public often ignore homeless people in trouble.

Chief executive of Scrine, Lloyd Hobbard-Mitchell said: "There's seems to be a growing level of compassion fatigue. We had a recent case where a homeless person was assaulted in a shop, and members of the public did nothing

"Instead the security guard chucked the homeless man out and the man who had committed the assault was served by the shopkeeper.

"Maybe had it been someone who looked more presentable, someone would have said something."

A member of Scrine staff who witnessed the assault called the police, and the charity are prosecuting the man responsible.

Another case saw a homeless woman lying unconscious in a busy street. A Scrine staff member happened to drive by and discovered she had strangled herself. Paramedics were able to revive her, but said that if no-one had stopped, the homeless woman would have died. Mr Hobbard-Mitchell says he finds it hard to explain public apathy towards homelessness, fearing that many people simply see rough sleepers as drug addicts or alcoholics who are dangerous to approach.

He said: "People need to talk about this. I don't know what has caused this problem, but I guess it's that people are exposed to so many awareness-raising campaigns now they become numb to it. A homeless person lying unconscious in the street is no longer unusual.

"The people we work with are normal people who are down on their luck. Some are victims of misfortune, other are not.

"Some have made life choices from which they are now seeing the consequences, but people need to realise they are normal people who have had different life experiences.

 What do YOU think about homeless people? Would you go to their aid? Email: yourswale@kosmedia.co.uk.

D-Day for park and ride plan

THE fourth park-and-ride site for the city will be on green field land at Faulkners Lane in Harbledown, if members follow officers' recommendations at tomorrow's executive meeting of the city council.

And that would be despite more than 500 objections having been lodged against the

These include 71 objections to the loss of grade one agricultural land, 66 to the additional traffic through Rough Common, and another 66 due to noise and air pollution.

The Faulkners Lane site was recommended by the council's consultant WSP. The report supporting the controversial recommendation concedes the issue is "difficult and highly sensitive" but justifies the decision by pointing out the new site will ease congestion and mean 800,000 less vehicle kilometres through Canterbury each year.

The decision to use Faulkners Lane is a departure from the council's own local plan, the blueprint document that determines planning strategy for the next few years. As such, Canterbury council will have to refer the decision to the Government Office for the South East, which must give clearance before plans go ahead.

The other sites considered. Wyvale and at the University of Kent have been discounted.

QUESTION & ANSWER JULIAN BRAZIER

How do you find Canterbury as a constituency?

A I've got the perfect constituency; one of the most beautiful medieval cities in Europe, some beautiful countryside around it and a wonderful stretch of coastline.

What are the big issues in the Canterbury district?

A Before I became a Member of Parliament, issues like anti-social behaviour didn't even register with me. The biggest change came through meeting people at my Saturday surgery, which made me realise the effect issues like that can have. It's incredible when you have a family who come in, with their children, explain how they can't sleep because their neighbours are playing loud music all night, and how their children can't play in the garden because they are throwing needles over the fence.

What are the biggest issues facing Britain?

The biggest issue we face at present is social breakdown, and the groups I'm involved with have a lot to do with tackling this.

Organisations such as the scouts, the Duke of Edinburgh, all give children from poorer backgrounds, whose parents can't afford to sign them up for expensive holidays, the chance to go and have adventures.

Should we bring back national service?

In Germany, national service is not a huge issue. Less than half of young people actually go into the armed forces, as you have the option to spend it working in the health service, or the voluntary sector. It doesn't force anyone into a uniform, we should consider that when we discuss it here.

How well do you get on with Conservative Party leader David Cameron?

I wouldn't say we were close, but yes, I get on well with him, very well. I'm pleased he's chosen the breakdown of society as his major issue, because two of the groups I'm involved with are very important to that. As a member of the front bench team, he has phoned me for advice on these issues.

I am involved with the adoption and fostering of all party groups, and we have been campaigning to remove the restrictions on fostering which currently are tipped vastly in favour of the biological parents.

This keeps children living in the most awful circumstances as the parents are given a third and a fourth chance. By the time they are taken away, the child is very hard to care for.

I'm also involved in the A-Risk group, which tries to combat health and safety mongers who make it hard for children from less affluent households to take part in adventurous activities, because parents can't afford insurance.

What do you do in your spare time?

I grew up without a television, as we were moving around so much, as my father was in the army, so I never got into the habit of watching it. I tend to read a lot. At the moment I'm reading a book about William Wilberforce, it's a great book about a great man.

I've got quite a large garden, so I do a lot of gardening. Mindless garden tasks mostly, such as mowing the lawn or weeding.

I run cross country to keep fit, although I can no longer do any road running since I injured my back. Because of that I won't do the Canterbury marathon again, but I hope to do the Whitstable 10k next year. It will be the first time I've done it since my injury.

Have you had any thoughts of retirement?

My father is 80, and he is still running a business. He restores antiques, and employs three sub contractors. He has just undertaken a major expansion, so I hope to keep going too.

How would you like to be remembered?

A I'd like to think that I'd made a difference, especially with the various groups I'm involved in. I'd like to think I've helped get more children adopted who otherwise might not have been

Cattle market is hit again

RESTRICTIONS on the movement of livestock after the latest outbreak of foot and mouth has once again delivered a major headache forAshford's cattle market.

And market chiefs say it could not have come at a worse time of year for traders.

Although some movement bans were lifted on Saturday, trading of livestock is still at a complete halt.

Mark Cleverdon, livestock auctioneer for the market's Hobbs Parker said: "This really does not improve the situation for us very much at all.

"The lifting of restrictions does mean that we could have a 'red' market which deals with animals going direct to slaughter. But our major business at this time of year involves animals being traded from farm to farm either for fattening or breading purposes.

"Last Friday we would have expected to see 10,000 cattle at the market ready to be moved on and this Friday another 5,000, so there is a tremendous backlog of cattle and sheep building up on farms around the country.

Only animals that are being sent directly to slaughter can currently be moved as authorities look to limit the danger of inadvertently spreading the disease following confirmed cases in badly affected, the movement restrictions have even more serious for sheep farmers.

Chris Older NFU county chairman said: "This is the busiest time for selling the lambs on to other farmers. It also means they cannot buy in new breading sheep.

"Farmers have to keep feeding the animals and see what happens. Unfortunately, bought-in feed has been particularly expensive this year. Normally at this time of year around a million sheep would change hands.

"When the restrictions are finally lifted there is undoubtedly going to be a drop in the prices as everything floods onto the market at the same time. We just have to live with it for a bit. But this has knock-on consequences for the whole year.

NO DEAL: Livestock prices are expected to drop when the market reopens

Is Brenda in line for an Oscar?

RAMSGATE actress Brenda Blethyn is one of the stars of what is rapidly becoming one of the most talked-about films of the year.

Blethyn plays the role of Grace Turner in Atonement, currently on general release.

Keira Knightly is in the lead role of the multi-generation drama which moves from the countryside to the war-torn beaches of Dunkirk and is based on a novel by Ian McEwan, with James McAvoy in the male lead role.

Blethyn, who was born in the Kent seaside town, plays an older relative of one of the people at the centre of the haunting events which

The film opened the Venice Festival and was proclaimed a triumph for director Joe Wright – at 35 the youngest person to ever have his work open the event.

A movie insider said: "It's a complex, demanding plot in an age when most movies are whambam spectaculars.

"Such has been the response it is already a front-runner for next year's Oscars.'

The film is to be released in the USA on December 7 in a bid to catch the attention of the massive Christmas film audiences and at a time when it is nearer the Oscar nominations – so it is more prominent in judges' minds.

Scarecrows in memory of the fallen soldiers

THE MYSTERIOUS scarecrow figures which pitched up at Fort Amherst during the summer and were vandalised hours before the Tour de France went through the county, are believed to signify fallen soldiers.

Finnish craftsman Reijo Kela revealed this week that the 130-strong Hei People community has a hidden meaning.

The scarecrows appeared at the Chatham fort in the run up to July's cycle race and moved on to a field near Queenborough on the Isle of Sheppey.

Sequins will stop Kelly from total TV exposure

TV STAR Kelly Brook will wow viewers by wearing revealing outfits to show off her curves when she takes part in the new series of Strictly Come Dancing.

The Rochester-born model has been installed as the early bookies' favourite to win the talent contest.

But the presenter and actress has told her costume designers she is willing to wear a saucy flesh-coloured leotard for the show.

But her modesty will be preserved by strategically placed sequins.

Questions over speed camera safety statistics

THE speed camera programme is in chaos this week after the Government admitted calculations on casualties and lives saved could be incorrect.

The Department for Transport currently uses figures supplied by Kent Police when it comes to calculating deaths and serious injuries avoided.

But the DfT is now to re-evaluate these calculations as figures recently supplied by hospitals nationwide show an increase in admissions.

People or Profit?

Clinical Trials performed before a drug is made available for all general practitioners to prescribe for their patients, rarely involve more than a few thousand patients at most. Some initial trials may involve no more than half a dozen patients.

It is well known that severe problems often do not appear either until at least 50,000 patients have taken a drug or until patients have used a drug for many months or even years.

Drug control authorities admit that when a new drug is launched no one really knows what will happen or what side effects will be identified.

Human Guinea Pigs

Doctors and drug companies are, it seems, using the public in a constant, ongoing, mass testing programme.

And you thought 'Animal Testing' was bad...what about 'Human Testing!'

The frightening truth is that far more people are killed as a result of prescription drugs than are killed as a result of using illegal drugs such as heroin or cocaine.

Dr. Vernon Cole, Professor of the Holistic Medical Sciences with the Open International University, states, "According to the World Health Organization only about 200 drugs are essential. At any one time there will, however, be anything up to 300,000 drugs on the market (the exact figure varies from day to day and from country to country)."

Only 16% of the drugs sold by the European pharmaceutical companies meet the World Health Organization definition of essential drugs. People or Profit? [That is far more than 200 because there are many different versions of each of the 'essential' drugs on the market].

In the UK, there were 28% more drugs on the market in 1990 than there were in 1980. Now you can start to see how the drug industry is one big business that is the third most profitable economic producer after tourism and finance! It is frightening to think what the figure might be in 2007!

Unfortunately, modern medical doctors have been referred to as drug company employees, promoting the finest and latest wonder drug with evangelical enthusiasm, never daring or sparing the time to criticize or to question the promotional material he/she is shown.

To further create support for their cause, Dr Vernon Coleman also adds further insight into how drug companies are known to "pay retainers and fat fees to a vast number of politicians, journalists [media companies] and professional, lobbyists and uses consequential power to keep its profits rising at a healthy rate." People or Profit?

According to a survey recently published in the Annuals of Internal Medicine 62% nearly two thirds of the pharmaceutical advertisements in medical journals were either grossly misleading or downright inaccurate.

Solution

Look at your doctor straight in the eye and ask them if they have ever received a 'kick back', 'back hander', 'freeby' in the form of lunch, new television, a holiday or even a free weekend away (all expenses paid of course) from a drug company whilst practicing medicine. If so, change your doctor. You'll be 'better off', instead of them, in the long run.

Prescription drugs and medication are a big business that relies on statistical data and sales made by doctors to people like you and I. Consider that and the intent behind your next prescription because you may well be a guinea pig whilst possibly supporting the affluent lifestyle of a Company Director, Doctor and/or salesperson. ## yourswaleblogger

Each week we get a mystery writer to air their views on living in Swale...

Time to give key workers a decent slice of the pie

LAST month saw Swale's prison officers join the growing number of vital workers who are not being given a fair deal.

Thousands of public servants who are often involved in difficult and dangerous work have not been given the recognition they deserve by successive governments keen to save cash while hard graft goes unrewarded.

The strike at the Sheppey Prison Cluster at the saw nearly 200 prison officers and staff walk out in an argument over pay rises below the rate of inflation.

It is hard not to sympathise with people who face and accept daily risk in the course of their normal working lives.

And Swale's prison officers are not the only key workers to face a raw deal when it comes to pay.

It emerged this week that Canterbury's emergency workers have been priced out of the housing market, effectively excluding them from the communities they work so hard to serve.

Canterbury is a great place to live, with good schools, nice restaurants and fantastic leisure facilities, so it is see to see why it is more than a little galling for those who spend their days keeping everyone healthy and safe, to be denied a slice of the pie.

And if the Government doesn't take notice, the repercussions could be enormous.

The walk out at the Sheppey prisons meant prisoners on remand missed court dates, slowing down an already decrepit legal process.

But compare this to what would happen if police officers were allowed to strike. Martial law and soldiers on the streets? It does not bear thinking about.

But that could be the reality if the police federations around the country are left to simmer.

The current pay agreement worked out for police officers dates back to 1979, with officers' salaries index-linked to the pay awards given to other public-sector workers.

This, in theory, removes the need to strike as increases are guaranteed against the pay of workers who are allowed to take industrial action, such as fire fighters.

But the problem seems to be widespread, with low wages being offered across the board to the people on whom our lives may one day depend.

What's the good of an indexed-linked scheme to the salaries of public sector colleagues who are also underpaid?

And the real shocker? A police constable who earns the maximum amount allowable on the standard scale gets more than £7,000 more than the equivalent nurse.

It's time we stopped taking workers in the emergency services for granted. Who knows when we might need them?

TALK TIME

CHRIS BLUNKELL

Chris Blunkell of the Faversham Road Residents' Association in Seasalter, discusses the issues facing his local community

What keeps you busy?

I work as a writer – mostly media work and a little research – and enjoy music and cricket, both watching and playing for Bishopsbourne.

What are the major issues affecting the Canterbury district at present?

I can't speak for the whole district, but I can tell you that the draft Shoreline Management Plan – drafted by the South East Coastal Group and concerned with the future provision of sea defences – has caused some consternation in these parts.

If it is approved as it stands this little patch of coast and its residents could be left to the sea in as little as 20 years time. In real terms this could mean that the sea defences are no longer maintained, or are even breached, and the marshes flooded.

Of course the timing depends on the rate at which sea levels rise, but residents fear the effects for them will be immediate and severe, disproportionate to that risk.

What global issue would you most like to see solved and why?

At the risk of being repetitive, climate change is going to have effects - both natural and legislative - on people all the over the world. Governments should be working hard to rein in the human contribution to such change, and to plan for any consequences in a just fashion - the social aspect should not be left to catch up with technical, as appears to happening at the moment. I'm confident the South East Coastal Group will set a good example when it sits down to discuss the fate of Faversham Road at the end of the month.

LAUNCH SUCCESS

A team of 90 KOS Media roadrunners alongside those from InvictaFM took to the streets of Kent last week to mark the exciting launch of our eight new free midweek newspapers.

Thousands of new readers were introduced to Yourashford, Yourcanterbury, Yourdover, Yourmaidstone, Yourmedway, Yourshepway, Yourswale and Yourthanet.

And every one of the new papers serving the variety of communities also has an accompanying website to bring you daily news and sport updates.

All give you access to our free broadband television channel, Yourkenttv.co.uk with its unique property, and business channels as well as leisure, motoring and sport.

The new newspapers were widely welcomed by all sectors and we have printed a selection of some of the letters we received.

"I am glad to see a new newspaper for this area which is genuinely offering something new – the on-line television brings a whole new dimension to local news coverage," said Phil Read, from Faversham, who works in Dover.

Looking forward to next week's read

I live in Chatham and have just picked up a copy of Yourmedway. I want to let you know it is a wonderful paper. The quality of the paper is excellent, it is well-printed, looks great and is a fantastic read.

I used to be a printer and I always like to see local news. I don't get national papers anymore as I think they are on the same level as the Beano or Dandy – they are full of nonsense.

Yourmedway is full of local news, it was a great read. Please keep up the good work and I look forward to the next edition.

John Southgate, aged 70, by telephone, from Chatham

We can learn from the scarecrow artist

I love the Hei people, those amazing scarecrows that have been on show around Medway and on the Isle of Sheppey and was genuinely upset to see they suffered a couple of months ago at the hands of vandals.

But I was pleased to read in your new newspaper how the artist has come back from this setback and remains undeterred. His spirit is an inspiration to us all and I hope others will learn.

The old saying the few should not spoil it for the majority is true and he encapsulates that.

By the way, I liked your newspaper and look forward to it becoming a part of my week.

Big top not the only answer for city

I was amused to read Yourcanterbury's front page story about the Marlowe Theatre's plan to go into a giant circus tent to bring live theatre to the city when the old building is refurbished next year.

This city deserves a world-class theatre and hopefully the work will ensure that is the case.

And while I applaud the efforts made to ensure productions continue don't forget the Gulbenkian.

Video tour of our new leisure pool

Ashford's Stour Centre refurbishment has been a long time coming, but thanks for letting us have a look around on your web TV service. The pics were great and I learned a lot about the new facilities there.

Taking a closer look at ancient words

In your report last week, Simon Robinson describes this book (Textus Roffensis) as "Anglo Saxon text," "Information on the English language" "record of the English language" but the section shown is in Latin. Why?

Eileen Denham, by email

• Editor's reply: We checked and the picture (below) is apparently in Anglo Saxon English from 900 years ago.

From one old favourite to another

Leslie Grantham has some big boots to fill in the stage version of the television classic Dad's Army

> PLAYING a loveable rogue should not be too much of a stretch for Leslie Grantham, but he still found his latest role nerve-racking.

The 60-year-old actor made a successful return to his most famous creation - 'Dirty' Den Watts in EastEnders – after 14 years away. But daring to take on one of the most beloved characters in British comedy history was an entirely different challenge.

Grantham is part of the ensemble cast in the new stage version of hit sitcom Dad's Army. He plays Private Joe Walker in the touring production, which revives two 'lost' episodes of the BBC's enormously successful comedy.

The actor admitted he was initially nervous about the idea.

"People around me were excited when I was offered the chance to be part of a stage version, though I wasn't sure," he said. "But the scripts are great and if the producer and director who are far more intelligent than me – thought it would work, it had to be worth the risk."

The gamble appears to have paid off, with packed theatres and huge media interest generating a lot of buzz around the tour. Before starting rehearsals, Grantham made the decision not to toy with the version of Walker made famous by the original actor, James Beck. He said: "People love these characters and they are really ing seeing them on stage

"Many of the audience members know every line. To change who Walker or Jonesy or Pike is would be to short-change the audience and the writers. I was very happy to be offered the part. If anyone was going to play a skinny, ugly Cockney, it was going to be me.

Bearing in mind the necessarily dated concept of Dad's Army, Grantham puts its enduring success down to the high quality of the writing and the essential truth of the situations. Between them, writers Jimmy Perry

- THE LOST EPISODES

Tuesday to Saturday, September 25-29 The Orchard Theatre, Dartford and David Croft had first-hand experience of the Home Guard and the Army – something reflected in another BBC hit It Ain't Half Hot Mum, one of Grantham's personal favourites. He said. "During rehearsals I realised just how clever the writing is. As a cast, we are having great fun and I think the audiences pick up on that.'

Grantham shares the bill with a number of great actors, including Peter Martin, who plays pompous Capt Mainwaring, and David Warwick as his main foil Sgt Wilson.

His relationship with fellow actors has not always been so harmonious, prompting Dirty Den's dramatic exit from EastEnders just 18 months after his return from the grave.

He was forced to apologise publicly after being involved in an internet sex scandal and was caught slating his costars. His character was murdered by on-screen wife Chrissie and buried in the Queen Vic's cellar, but Grantham claimed he had never intended to stay on for more than 18 months anyway.

He said: "It wasn't a difficult decision to return to EastEnders because I simply went back to kill off the character. It's one of those things you do and then move on from.'

In his autobiography, released last year, Grantham revealed he had attempted suicide three times since the scandal broke. But he was touched by the level of support he members of the public.

"People of all ages came up to me in the street and wished me well," he said. "Getting the book out of the way certainly helped to clear some cobwebs and now I'm working on a screenplay." • Dad's Army - The Lost Episodes will be at the Orchard Theatre, Dartford. from Tuesday, September 25, to Saturday, September 29. Performances start at 7.45pm daily, with 2.30pm matinees on Wednesday and Saturday. Tickets cost from £13.50-£20.50. To book, call the box office on 01322 220000, or visit www.orchardtheatre.co.uk.

AMY WADGE

Tuesday, September 25 Gulbenkian Café Bar

AWARD-WINNING vocalist Amy Wadge will be kicking off the Gulbenkian Café Bar in Canterbury's new season of live music next Described as a new Joni Mitchell, Amy fended off competition from Cerys Matthews and Charlotte Church to win Top Female Vocalist at the Welsh Music Awards twice and her songs have been used on TV shows, including Waking The Dead. The first of Amy's three full-length albums, Woj, was released to critical acclaim in 2004. Since then she has supported Jeff Beck on his first tour for 14 years.

It seems the big names can't get enough of Amy – she has opened for Van Morrison, Bob Geldof, Damien Rice and Eric Bibb. Her debut mini-album was recorded by Manic Street Preachers' producer, Greg Haver.

Her latest album, No Sudden Moves, is full of the honest and emotionally articulate songs for which Amy is renowned.

Amy will open the K-City Music Tuesdays season at 8pm. Tickets cost £5. To book, call 01227 769075 or visit the website at www.gulbenkiantheatre.co.uk.

KENT FILM FESTIVAL

Saturday, September 22 Christ Church University College

MOVIE lovers will be in heaven when this year's Kent Film Festival gets underway on Saturday.

Now running for more than 30 years. the festival is a celebration of the best films and the people who create them. Award-winning films from Kent and south east London will be showcased at Christ Church University College Canterbury, from 11am to 7pm. There will even be the chance to meet some of the talented filmmakers and chat about the industry between screenings at the university's Powell Theatre in North Holmes Road.

Originally held at a church hall in Chatham, the event's popularity grew until a move to Canterbury was needed. More than 60 entries were received last year, making it the largest amateur film festival in the country.

Audience members can vote for their favourite films and the organisers say there is always something special to remember every year. To find out more, log-on to the event's official website at www.kentfilmfestival.com.

Crowe back in the saddle

BY ELLIE GENOWER

AT TIMES, controversy used to follow Russell Crowe around like a bad smell.

Be it in a New York hotel, where he was accused of assaulting an employee with a telephone back in 2005, or his infamous row with producer Malcolm Gerrie at the 2002 Bafta Awards.

But these days, aged 43, the volatile New Zealand-born actor seems to have calmed down and happily settled with wife Danielle Spencer and their two sons Charlie, three, and one-year-old Tennyson, at his ranch in New South Wales, Australia.

During a career in which he's played such colourful characters as schizophrenic mathematician John Nash in A Beautiful Mind and brash British sea captain John Aubrey in Master And Commander, Russell's continued to avoid taking the conventional leading man route with his choice of roles.

More recently he teamed up again with director Ridley Scott for A Good Year and played boxer Jim Braddock in Cinderella

And although box office takings for these films were disappointing by the Aussie actor's standards, it seems that Russell isn't - and probably never will be – all that bothered.

"I just do things that appeal to me," he says firmly. "My primary focus when I read a script is the same as it's always been. What's the story and what's the character."

One script that made the cut for Russell is this week's cowboy flick 3:10 To Yuma. In it, he plays tough guy outlaw Ben Wade, who is escorted across the desert plains by strappedfor-cash farmer Dan Evans (Christian Bale) to board a prison train and face trial in the town's federal court.

"I really enjoyed the thought of the story," says Russell. "The main thing is reading the script and seeing the dynamic of the characters. I liked the script, and it looked like it was going to be fun."

As you'd expect, the plot doesn't run smoothly. Wade's being pursued by a bounty hunter, played by Peter Fonda, and his own gang, while Wade himself is continually trying to charm his captor into setting him free.

"I don't like Wade and I wouldn't want to hang out with him, but I liked playing the 'says Russell.

"I liked his forthrightness, his attitude to life and his hat. His trousers weren't bad either especially the leather inserts!"

Russell also displayed talent with a gun: he was rumoured to be the quickest draw on set. "Coming from Australia, I didn't have much RIDE ON TIME: Aussie Russell Crowe plays tough outlaw Ben Wade who is on his way to prison in 3:10 To Yuma experience of gun culture," he explains. "So I'd never actually held a hand gun until I was on the set of the Quick And The Dead back in Overall Russell thought it was any easy film to make. He added: "Ride horses, play with guns, speak in a funny voice, wear pointy boots, you know? It's all fun because it's skill sets that I've already taken on board in previous roles, so I can just focus on the character and the way this particular guy is in his environment. So there's absolutely nothing about this job that was really hard work.

Go upmarket on the Algarve

BY ANN BIRD

THAT Cliff Richard knows a thing or two. So do Michael Owen and Ronan Keating. Not to mention Madonna.

What do they know? That the Quinta do Lago resort on the Algarve is an irresistible place to relax. So irresistible, in fact, that the locals claim these celebs have all bought properties here over the years.

Indeed, Cliff is so taken with this part of Portugal that he's even established a vineyard, Quinta do Moinho, just up the road at Guia, where you can sample his wine.

In reality, Quinta do Lago is actually a vast area of many different resorts and is well known as a haven for golf lovers.

But it's also a surprisingly attractive spot for families, as I discovered when I took my toddler to the Monte da Quinta Club 'village' at the southern end of Quinta do Lago, about a kilometre from the sea.

With about 170 townhouses and villas in the club, each with its own pool, it's like a cross between an upmarket Center Parcs and Wisteria Avenue (for fans of TV's Desperate Housewives).

With almost 100 gardeners and groundstaff employed on the complex, many of these cobbled lanes and immaculate gardens are almost as high-maintenance as those wellheeled women of the small screen.

Each property is privately owned – mainly by

ROOMS WITH A VIEW: Monte Da Quinta Club 'village' on the Algarve is the perfect place to relax and unwind

British or Irish investors - who then let their houses to tourists at certain times of the year.

With a maid coming in every day to tidy our villa, it didn't take us long to realise we had all the benefits of staying in a hotel but with the independence and privacy of self-catering thrown in.

Just 100 metres away is the little MQ shopping centre, which includes a stylish trattoria offering decent pizza and pasta takeaways.

Not only is the clubhouse home to the large communal indoor and outdoor pools and health club, it also houses Kids World.

Children from ages three to 12 can be dropped off here for half-day or full-day sessions (20-35 euros) and can then throw themselves into treasure hunts, plaster painting, puppetry or even go on trips to the Kids World will also arrange babysitting for 15 euros an hour.

Quinta do Lago is separated from the Atlantic Ocean by the beautiful Rio Formosa nature reserve, which is home to many migratory birds. A long wooden footbridge crosses the estuary and links the car park, where we left our bikes, to the dune-backed beach.

There, sand and surf stretches as far as the eye can see, the view broken only by the sight of windsurfers making the most of the frequent strong breezes.

It's a great strand for sandcastles, but the sea can be a bit rough - and cold - for little ones.

It's a good idea to bring a picnic, although fish fans can spoil themselves at Gigi's, one of the very few restaurants along the beach and one of the most famous on the Algarve.

There's no menu as such, just a list of the catch, which is charged by the kilo. We went for grilled squid for two in a delicious garlic sauce at 27 euros.

In fact this is one of the few places around here where you might bump into some Portuguese locals. That's how good it is.

In fact, I only began to feel a bit stressed again when it was time to pack up for the half-hour taxi ride to Faro airport for the flight

History

A key part of the Algarve's history is the five centuries of Arab occupation. It makes itself known in the region's architecture and the number of place names that begin with Aj. The 1755 earthquake, which had its epicentre very close to Lagos, destroyed much of the Algarve. But not even this would stop the algarvios, who rebuilt the Algarve and made it what it is today.

YOUR WEEK'S HOROSCOPE

AQUARIUS

(Jan 21 – Feb 19)

YOU can't change anybody's mind by intimidation. Simply make your case and hope they'll take the hint. If they decide to take a different path, learn to live with it and move in. This may means breaking off your association or finding another job. Fortunately, you are very resilient. Don't get into a childish argument with a lover.

TAURUS

(Apr 21 – May 21 )

IMPULSIVE spending could prevent you from having money for something you really enjoy. Be as frugal as possible. A lover may be pressuring you to go too far, too fast. Put the brakes on now, while you still have a measure of control. Unrealistic expectations at work could force you to spend lots of time away from home.

(July 24 – Aug 23)

DON'T fall prey to temptation friends pressure you into spending money you don't have. If people truly care, they'll respect your request to back off. You could form a love connection with someone spiritual. Don't get drawn into a competition with a rival. Remember a partner has needs or you'll come across as self-centred.

SCORPIO

(Oct 24 - Nov 22)

FRIEND could betray a secret, leading to an argument.

As much as it pains you to do so, you may have to end this relationship. Fortunately, you'll get a lot of hidden support from a prominent woman who witnessed the whole betrayal. Take this opportunity to revisit a memory from childhood that served as a turning point for you.

PISCES

(Feb 20 - Mar 20)

RESENTFUL feelings are starting to surface. You can't keep pretending things are just fine. It's time to discuss some painful truths. It's possible career concerns are undermining your relationship. Be brave and take the problem to your boss. Don't spend every minute at the office. You can't work well if you don't have a personal life.

GEMINI

(May 22 – Jun 22)

A SERIOUS programme of study is coming to a close, giving you more opportunity to get the sort of work you enjoy. Now it's time to turn your attention to family matters. Coming to terms with limitations that were imposed is essential to your personal growth. If this means cutting off contact with critics, so be it. This is a time of transformations.

VIRGO

(Aug 24 - Sep 23)

YOU won't be able to change the minds of people in power so don't even try. It's better to go on record as opposing their plans. That way, when their actions backfire, you'll be ready to assume the reins of power. A moneymaking idea could result in a much better work assignment. Turn a deaf ear to a pessimistic relative.

SAGITTARIUS

(Nov 23 – Dec 21)

A BUSINESS or partner romantic may resent your success. While you have no intention of changing your behaviour, it is important to assess this person's position. Maybe you have put your reputation ahead of your relationship. If that's the case, you need to decide which is more important. Don't try to bully people into doing things your way.

ARIES

(Mar 21 – Apr 20)

RESIST the urge to rush at work or mistakes will happen.

An arrogant know-it-all could try to improve your methods, but you're not interested in their ideas, but turning a deaf ear to their suggestions could create a terrible power struggle. Try to give in gracefully to this blowhard's advice, if only for the sake of group harmony.

CANCER

Jun 23 – Jul 23)

KEEPING your feelings under wraps may not be possible.

You've simply got to state your disapproval. Fortunately, you have the opportunity to get away from this person, if only for a few days. A power struggle at work makes it hard to get anything done so you might as well take a break. Keep personal information under lock and key.

LIBRA

(Sep 24 - Oct 23)

YOU may be burning with jealousy over someone who knows a lot more than you do, but you can achieve the just the same level of expertise if you're willing to work for it. It's all a matter of presenting your creative vision to the powers that be. Don't let self doubt prevent you from exploring opportunities a great opening.

CAPRICORN

(Dec 22 - Jan 20)

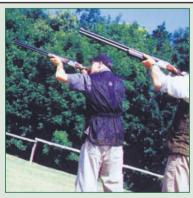

PUSHING yourself with an exercise regimen could result in an injury. Some powerful anxieties may be causing you to second guess everything that people say. Try not to despair if it seems like your loyalty is misplaced. You'll eventually be rewarded for relinquishing control. This is not a good week to lend or borrow money.

Palin's full of Eastern European promise

BY BEN FALK

MICHAEL Palin is back - this time with a series entitled Michael Palin's New Europe, in which he eschews the far-flung corners of the Earth he tackled in Sahara and Himalaya, to focus on our own continent.

And visiting Europe ended up being just as kooky as his more exotic journeys, particularly when he ventured into Eastern Europe.

He went through 20 countries ("some of them very quickly – sorry Macedonia!") and was delighted to discover the region had changed dramatically since he travelled there

"The misconception was it was grey and grim and it turned out to be very lively and energetic," he says. Part of that, of course, is thanks to Michael's trademark chats with the locals.

He said: "It's a deliberate process to get people who are basically not politicians, not from the local tourist group and not people who want to tell you about tin production," he explains. "We do try to get non-experts, just people with something to say."

The still-youthful 64-year-old still has to live with the Python spectre which still hangs over this multi-faceted performer, and while his trips to the desert and mountains allowed him to be more anonymous than usual, Europe was a different kettle of fish.

"In Eastern Europe, more than any of the other series, there were a lot of people who did know [me]," he admits.

The series started last Sunday in the former Yugoslavia.

LARKING ABOUT: Michael Palin with children from Estonia whom he met during his new series for BBC One

He said: "Yugoslavia – they loved Monty Python. I remember it was the first non-English-speaking country that took Monty Python, it must have been 1970-71. We were like, 'We've made a sale to a foreign country'."

He added: "The Slavs liked it a lot and I met a lot of people who just said what it meant to them at that time. Laughing at Python was a badge of how they would laugh at the system they had there, a little bit of a dig at authority.

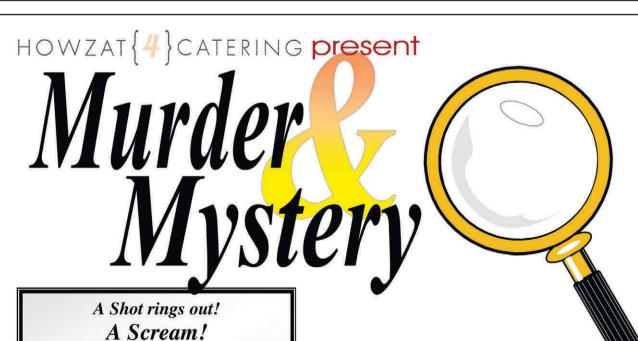

"But I had to try to tell them I'm interested in your world, not my own."

Indeed, for all the incredible, edgy work Michael has done over the years - from Python and A Fish Called Wanda, to all his travel television series - his real life has always been low key.

He has three grown-up children and has been happily married since 1966. The couple live in Highgate, North London, near Python cohort Terry Gilliam.

It's this affable, regular-guy persona that gives his travelogues a unique touch, with Michael agreeing that: "I don't see myself as 'the presenter' who is going to make sense of the world for you. Because I'm learning."

ONE DAY ELLIOTT: MIXING versatility with their own unique sound has proved the key to success for One Day Elliott. The four-piece rock band from Maidstone have just returned from their second triumphant US tour. In the UK, One Day Elliott have appeared on the same bill as big acts such as The Fall, Hundred Reasons and Jesse James, and album sales now total more than 5,500. Having been brought to national attention with airplay on influences as diverse as Led Zeppelin and Green Day has helped the band find their own voice. "We all love rock but listen to different styles," he said.

(I) (D) (D) THE VALUES: This video clip, called Please Forgive Me, was made by talented trio The Values - Matt Lungley, Will Powell and Brad Stockham from Westerham.

Matt and his friend Brad Stockham (bass guitar) are both 16 and shot the video themselves for their GCSE media this year and also for the band's use. Matt said: "I started The Values a few years ago with friends Brad and Will Powell and we were joined by drummer Ben Lockwood. The song Please Forgive Me featured in the video is an early demo which Matt wrote. "The Values write all their own material and love to perform.

"We have different influences, which we bring together to make a fresh tightly-knit sound. Our demos on our website are not very professional compared with how fantastic we sound live."

CONCRETE JUICE: Made to The Prodigy's Under my Wheel, this video was directed, produced, filmed and edited by Katie Fotis and Natalie Lungley, known as Concrete Juice, from Westerham.

Nat said: "Concrete Juice was created by Katie and me for our A-level media studies. It took us about a week to create, often staying after school. We were both 17 when we made the video and were very pleased with the result. Our idea was to create a female band and produce a video along a theme of feisty individuals who could create shock and intrigue in a maledominated world. We are now both 19 but are still very proud of our creation. We chose The Prodigy as I love this record and it embodies the video completely. We would love The Prodigy to see the video we have set to their music and hope we have done their track proud."

Contracts for Textile Collections and Processing from Household Waste Recycling Centres 2007-2009

Kent County Council is an Excellent Rated authority and has very high expectations of itself and its contractors. The contracts which are the subject of this expression of interest centre on the collection, onward transfer and processing of textiles which are deposited at Kent County Council Household Waste Recycling Centre sites. The contracts will be awarded for a period of two years with an expected start of December 2007.

These contracts are focused upon the collection of all textiles from our sites (no pre-sorting). The contracts will be area based packages (East and West Kent) but will also allow for a combined bid to be submitted for both areas. Kent County Council Waste Management is keen to harness innovation as a by product of the tender and this will give potential tenderers the opportunity to provide options within their response which should provide a cost effective solution for the

We are seeking expressions of interest from suitably qualified and experienced contractors who are interested in working with Kent County Council to deliver this service. We will evaluate options for contract award on the basis of 1 or 2 or both packages per contractor.

The contract packages area splits are:

Maidstone, Swanley, Dartford, Gravesend, Tunbridge Wells, Sevenoaks and

East Kent

Faversham, Herne Bay, Sheerness, Ashford, Shorncliffe (Folkestone), Canterbury, Deal, Margate and Richborough

The contract packages collectively deal with approximately 1400 tonnes of textiles per annum with corresponding contract values. This is expected to increase as other contractual initiatives that are centred on the recently let Household Waste Recycling Centre management contracts deliver operationally.

Contract Duration is 2 Years to 2009

Tenders will be invited following completion of a pre-qualification process. Contractors wishing to be considered for inclusion on the select tender list will need to apply in writing (contact details below) for a pre-qualification questionnaire application form, no later than 12 October 2007. A maximum of 7 companies will then be invited to tender for the provision of the service during November 2007.

Development site opens its doors for weekend

AN OPEN weekend takes place later this month for prospective buyers to take a look around a new development in Sittingbourne. The Eden Village site in Bluebell

The Eden Village site in Bluebell Drive, off Benchley Road, is comprised of 180 new properties – including two-bedroom apartments and two, three, four and five-bedroom houses.

Homes are arranged around greens and squares, and along tree-lined avenues.

Future phases will widen the village to include a range of traditional homes in varying styles along with a fresh new model for a townhouse, designed by PCKO Architects, winners of the eScape housing design competition.

The site has been designed by award-winning architect Clague.

Developers Barratt's – who have taken over the project following their recent acquisition of Wilson Bowden – will be marking the occasion by staging a celebratory 'Apple Fest'. Attractions include a hog roast, bouncy castle, face painters and a number of apple-themed activities such as bobbing and cooking.

The two-day event takes place between September 29 and 30. Activities take place between 11am and 4pm.

Research is the key to a retirement home

LOOKING for a retirement home? Then planning and research are your most valuable tools, according to an expert.

And once again it is the old slogan – location, location, location which should be foremost in your thinking.

Then it's a case of considering exactly how much space you need.

Sarah Woods, editor of the Retirement Property guide, said: "Consider the community make-up of the area or region.

region.
"Is it popular with retirees? Does it have clubs, associations and leisure amenities for people of retirement age? Are there facilities locally that will enhance your lifestyle and social interests? Does the location suit your personal tastes and those of your family?

"Secondly, clarify what type of property you are looking for.

"Be realistic, there is little point in downsizing to a one-bedroom flat if you have friends to stay each weekend, while purchasing a five-bedroom period home with large garden may not be a sensible option if you plan to travel frequently or you want to keep chores to a minimum."

JOHN ELLIOTT: Property developer not only has serious doubts over the effectiveness of Home Information Packs, but he predicts an adverse impact on the property market

Controversial property law gains momentum

DESPITE little evidence that HIPs
- Home Information Packs - are working successfully or that they working successfully, or that they are beneficial to the property market, this week has seen their extension to include properties with three or more bedrooms.

Initially, the scheme was to include all homes, but following heavy criticism the proposals were consistently watered down so that they could only be applied to homes with four bedrooms or more.

However, the recent extension will increase the coverage from 22 to 70 per cent of the property market. But is it too much, too soon?

Not only is it too early to evaluate the effectiveness of HIPs, but there has already been evidence that 'speculative sellers', or those who put their home on with agents to test the market, many of whom end up selling, have now been put off.

JOHN Elliott, chief executive of Millwood Designer Homes, takes a close look at the still contentious introduction of Home Information Packs

With the supply of homes coming on to the market at its lowest level for 10 years, surely we should be encouraging sales and not hindering?

The extension to three-bedroom homes will only limit supply further and push up house prices, which have only recently started to settle

While it may not affect housebuilders such as myself – new homes are exempt, so long as they have an accredited warranty – potential buyers at our developments will need to be more organised when it comes to selling their existing home.

Furthermore, purchasers part-exchanging homes with developers will also require a HIP, so, depending on how long it takes to gather this information, a normally quick sales process becomes drawn out.

With an energy performance certificate being the only new piece of information that has come from the introduction of HIPs, despite purporting to contain all manner of legal documents, I continue to doubt that they have any real purpose, apart from adding to the coffers of Government.

While I fully support anything designed to help preserve the environment, I don't believe that the certificates go any way towards this and the cost outweighs the benefits.

For the second-hand market the results of this energy performance survey may provide the buyers with the leverage to haggle down the price of the home, meanwhile costing the sellers even more money.

MOTORS NEWS

Choosing atlas wins a Toyota Aygo city car

SAT navs may be all the rage, but buying an atlas was a shrewd choice for Paul Benton of Broadstairs – it won him a chic Toyota Aygo city car in a joint promotion by Toyota and publisher Harper Collins.

Mr Benton was presented with the Aygo by Robert Hobbs, centre manager at Motorline Toyota, Canterbury, who said: "There were an astonishing 700,000 entries for the national competition, which really raised the profile for the Aygo (I-go) – one of our best sellers. Once people try it, they are always impressed.

"It may be small on the outside, but it's big on the inside."

New era for Peugeot of both style and quality

PEUGEOT'S new French revolution starts with the first of its '8' series of models and a new era in which the brand offers greater quality and style.

The wide sculpted design of the new 308 Ford Focus challenger appears compact yet the cabin feels huge, with or without a panoramic glass roof.

This is largely due to the forward angling of the dashboard/facia and a swooping centre console.

Materials, clocks and gauges are from a class above – while seating and passenger comfort is impressive.

New Saab makeover offers Aero appeal

SAAB has given a dramatic aerodynamic makeover to its 9-3 sports saloon, SportWagon estate and convertible range.

Maidstone Saab brand manager Kevin Root said: "Initial reaction to the new 9-3 has been extremely positive thanks to significant development across three key areas: design, performance and handling.

"The result is a major step forward in strengthening the visual and driving appeal of the award-winning 9-3 range."

Forthcoming options include 'XWD' 4x4 on Saab 9-3 Aero Saloon and SportWagon sporting flagships.

WHAT'S IN A NAME: The Qashqai may be unpronounceable but it provides a good ride in both town and country and can compete for Nissan in several markets

Nissan's right to roam

MANY theories explain why Nissan named its new family hatchback after an Asian nomadic tribe, the Qashqai.

First, that Nissan itself has meandered too long in this tough market sector.

Second, the Qashqai must put itself about a bit, replacing both the Almera and larger Primera and attacking other sectors too. Third, all sensible name options were taken up and registered by other car firms years ago. Fourth? I hear someone had a bad cold at a marketing brainstorm. After several loud 'Qashqais!' the whole naming panel was screaming: "That's it! You're a genius!"

But the official line is the Qashqai writes its own rules and lives anywhere – town or country. With two-wheel drive or 4x4 options and looks mixing streetwise hatch with a dash of off-roader, it can be family hack, rep's motorway muncher. rural runabout or school bus.

While it looks bigger, its 'footprint' is no more than a family hatch, yet offers more boot space.

And junior engine and trim options are priced to compete (from £13,499) with everyday hatchbacks like the Ford Focus and Vauxhall Astra, though would-be people carrier and recreational 4x4 buvers might try it for size too.

Most sales will be humbler two-wheel drive Qashqais that feel nimbler, ride better and concede little in handling and grip in normal on-road conditions, though both layouts deliver a good ride and tidy cornering.

The Qashqai's distinctive exterior is matched by a smart and comfortable interior with clever stowage and laden with standard goodies; Bluetooth hands-free 'connectivity', electric windows, air con, glovebox cooler and alloys.

Our favourite is the 1.5 dCi (Acenta trim £16,149), using a low emission diesel engine and worth the £1,100 premium over the 1.6 petrol if you cover many miles. It is lively and a six-speed gearbox helps it average 50+mpg.

There are also two-litre petrol and diesel units – the likely choice if you have that £1,600 4x4 option.

Just when you thought things couldn't get any better. Introducing the limited new Freelander 2 with metallic paint, additional body kit, 19" shadow chrome alloy wheels and chrome mirror caps. Look even better whilst experiencing the same class leading technology and breathtaking performance.

Full Urban Kit also available fitted for only £2,500.

Passion is everything when it comes to FIAT and the new model line up is market beating. The recent launch of the all new Fiat Bravo combined with the impending re-birth of the FIAT 500 has meant FIAT now has a much broader appeal and consequently a much wider audience.

The further growth of our sales team is an important milestone in the development of our FIAT brand. We need a bright, enthusiastic & experienced sales professional

We want you to have passion! We also need you to have a proven track record in sales with a heavy focus on the overall customer experience when visiting our showroom. You should be a sales professional with an eye for target achievement. Experience preferable, but for the right person full training will be provided.

Senior Service Receptionist

Our standards are high and our customers expect and deserve the best. Our aftersales team needs a Senior Service Receptionist to assist with the further growth in this already busy department.

The brand requires the highest level of dedication and customer service and therefore we need someone with previous Service Reception experience to fill this demanding role. Our success with the customer experience with Vauxhall is key to our growth and you should be a first class communicator with a proven track record in the role elsewhere. You should enjoy taking ownership of issues and be able to deliver on promises given to our valued customer base.

Knowledge of Kerridge would be preferred, but not essential as system training can be provided.

Full time position with this ever expanding team should suit Mercedes-Benz someone with previous experience, but training can be provided. Enthusiasm, reliability & drive needed!

BUSINESS BRIEFS

Strutt & Parker boost profile with merger

PROPERTY estate agency Strutt & Parker's regional profile has expanded 50 per cent after concluding its merger with agency Lane Fox.

Strutt & Parker will add 16 former Lane Fox regional sales offices to its network and an additional six London offices, bringing its total to 51, including some in areas where Strutt & Parker has never previously had branches.

In Kent, Strutt & Parker's Canterbury branch will be augmented by the former Lane Fox office in Sevenoaks, which will be re-branded with Strutt & Parker's new look corporate identity.

Firefighters awarded management diplomas

FIFTEEN officers from Kent Fire and Rescue Service (KFRS) have become the first in the county to be awarded a Diploma in Management Studies by Canterbury Christ Church University.

The graduates – who are part of KFRS management staff – received their diplomas at a ceremony at service head-quarters in Maidstone on Thursday.

Their studies programme comprised of a suite of management modules, some of which were designed by the university specifically for KFRS, including areas such as fire service incident command.

The university is Kent's largest centre of higher education for the public services.

Chamber kicks off black tie dinner dance

THE North Kent Chamber of Commerce stages a dinner dance at the home of Gillingham Football Club on Friday.

The business organisation, which represents members across Swale, is holding the event in conjunction with the Thames Gateway Chamber.

The black tie and evening dress event starts with pre-dinner drinks at 6.45pm and a three-course meal, with live music from The Choice.

The evening's entertainment ends at midnight.

It takes place in the Priestfield Conference & Banqueting suite in Redfern Avenue.

For details on how to attend contact Sharon Hogbin on 01634 311411, or emailshogbin@northkentchamber.org.

Massive restoration project nears an end

RETURN TO GLORY: Cardy Construction have been working to restore the famous 18th Century mansion Luton Hoo for two-years, and can now celebrate the project's completion BATS, James Bond, Hugh Grant and the Queen – all have been part of Cardy Construction's latest and largest project; the restoration of the spectacular 18th Century mansion Luton Hoo.

The Kent construction firm, specialists in returning old buildings to their former glory, is just wrapping up a £50 million-plus restoration of the grand house that received the Queen on her honeymoon, and has played host to several high profile British films including Four Weddings and a Funeral and The World is Not Enough.

Once complete, the building will form the jewel in the crown of leading luxury hotelier Elite Hotels.

Kent-based Cardy's contracts director Mike Stannard said: "It has certainly been one of our biggest projects to date.

BY GARETH ARNOLD

"However, we have a great deal of experience in jobs of this nature, and we have a long standing relationship with Elite Hotels – so it was not such a daunting task."

Not only was the restoration one of the biggest projects Cardy have tackled, it was also one of the strangest.

Mr Stannard said: "The estate is home to several species of bats, which are protected species, and breeding sites.

"We liaised with the Department for Environment Food and Rural Affairs and built a 'bat cave' with 50 bat boxes to re-house bats found on site during the restoration project."

And that wasn't the only unusual job facing the firm which has been working on the site since September 2005.

Mr Stannard said: "One of the main challenges is that when you're working on a building that's over 200-years-old you cannot rely on up to date survey information.

"This means we had to perform a lot of investigation work to find out if we could do things the way they were drawn by the designers. Sometimes we found that things weren't always as they seemed, which meant there were a few problems to overcome. But that's why we're here."

On top of that, the sheer scale of the project was breathtaking. Cardy's builders installed 175,000 metres of cabling, used one million bricks in new buildings, restored 27 chimney stacks and indented over 3,500 pieces of new stone into the external walls of the mansion house.

Kent cricket's number-one fan talks about what makes the club special

Away defeat starts season

SITTINGBOURNE rugby kicked off their Kent Division One season with a 23-10 defeat to Old Gravesendians at the Grove.

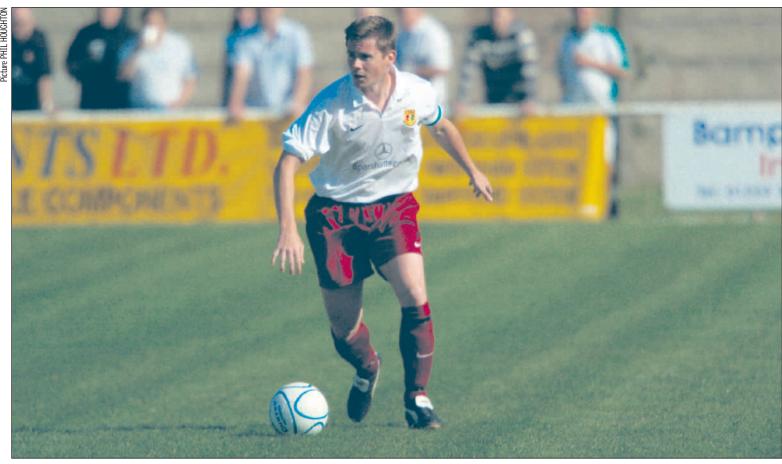

Gravesendians opened the scoring on 10 minutes, but Sittingbourne replied soon after when Scott Truss kicked a penalty to reduce the deficit.

Gravesendians scored another try similar to the first to make the score 10-3 to the home side and a further penalty made the score 13-3 at half time.

In the second half Sittingbourne upped their game and scored a try when No 8 Ben Rabey crossed the Gravesendians line. Truss added the extras to bring Sittingbourne back into the match.

However, the home side put pressure on Sittingbourne and kicked a penalty to make the score 16-10.

With minutes left, Sittingbourne tried to win the game with an adventurous move which failed and Gravesendians retrieved the loose ball and scored another try.

AND AGAIN: Sittingbourne captian Joe Dowley lead his team into action again last night as the Brickies aimed for a place in the second qualifying round of the FA Cup

Big crowd sees brave Brickies force replay

SITTINGBOURNE were battling to book their place in the second qualifying round of the FA Cup last night after a well-earned draw on Saturday triggered a replay.

The first game entertained a bumper crowd of 870 at Dartford's Princes Park, with both sides going out to attack.

sides going out to attack.

Dartford enjoyed the best of the opening period, and took an early lead.

On 13 minutes Jay May had found space to lob the ball over on-rushing Sittingbourne keeper Josh Willis and into the net for the opening goal. The Darts took command and the half became a real test of resolve for Sittingbourne.

The home side created plenty of chances to extend their lead, with former Chatham Town player Brendan Cass the most dangerous threat.

A minute after the goal Willis was called into action to tip a Cass header over the bar. From the corner John Guest crashed a tremendous header onto the woodwork and the visitors scrambled the ball to safety.

The Brickies hung on and managed to make it to the break just one goal adrift.

If the first half had belonged to Dartford then the second belonged to Sittingbourne.

Steve Lovell changed from a 4-5-1 formation to a 4-4-2 and the Brickies looked a different side.

The visitors began to dominate after the hour mark, and on 62 minutes James Campbell had a chance from a Steve Hafner corner but sent his shot just over the bar.

Mitchell Sherwood was a potent threat out wide and only a last-ditch tackle prevented a wonder goal as he ran into the box.

Time was running out for Sittingbourne, especially when Campbell connected perfectly with a far-post header only to see Steve Norman head the ball off the line.

Sittingbourne had another scare on 84 minutes when a mistake let in Tom Bradbrook but quick thinking by Willis saved the situation as he came rushing out and kicked the ball clear.

But the Brickies got their just reward on 85 minutes. Bradley Spice crossed to Hafner in the area, who found Sherwood in space. The winger struck the ball past Kessell for a Brickies equaliser that was met with a crescendo of sound from the travelling Sittingbourne support.

Sittingbourne survived five minutes of injury time and two Darts efforts but the final whistle signalled a deserved replay at Bourne Park.

Shakey hopes for solid start as season nears end

SPEED STAR: Shakey Byrne is preparing for the race meeting at Donington

SHEPPEY superbike racer Shane Byrne will be in action in the penultimate round of the British Superbike championship at Donington Park this weekend.

The former British Superbike champion is currently fifth in this year's championship on 257 points riding for the Stobart VentAxia Honda team.

Byrne has had a successful year so far, scoring nine podium finishes, and one win at Mallory Park in round 17 of the championship.

Byrne said: "This year so far has been good.

"I have not dominated the campionship like I did in 2003, but I have still managed to finish on the podium a few times.

SUPERBIKES

"Considering we are not the top package in the championship, we have done well."

Shakey will be hoping for a better meeting compared to last time at Cadwell Park where he scored a fourth place in race one and failed to finish race two.

Speaking about the Donington meeting he said: "I'm really looking forward to it.

"I have been training really hard to get in tip-top shape for the meeting.

"The Donington circuit is one where you have to compromise the bike set-up as the first part of the lap is fast and flowing, but the end of the lap is very stop and start so it will be interesting."

As for the future, Byrne said: "It is a bit too early to say what I will be doing next year.

"If the right offer comes I will compete in the British championship but my dream scenario would be a return to the World Superbike series."

The last round of the season is at Brands Hatch a circuit where Byrne scored a double race victory in the World Superbike meeting back in 2003.

Town boss Copley is out of patience

FOOTBALL

BY TONY GRAY

Sporting Bengal 1 - 1 Faversham Town

FAVERSHAM picked up their first point of the season against Sporting Bengal, but manager Paul Copley slammed his players for their performances so far this season.

Copley labeled the Lilywhites' start as "awful" and has lost patience with some of his side. He now seems certain to wield the axe in his search for success.

He said: "The guys have been given every opportunity to win games and make this a successful club, but unfortunately some of them just aren't good enough.

"We've signed Liam Morris on loan from Ramsgate and over the next two weeks or so more new faces will arrive.

"I'll back any player who plays for me, without question. They've just got to understand that some of them may not require my backing anymore."

Town looked the more likely of the two sides to score in the first period, and squandered several chances.

After the break the home side grew in confidence and took the lead through Jack Taylor on 66 minutes.

An angry Copley felt the goal should not have counted, after Dave Read was fouled in the build-up.

Faversham's task got even harder on 84 minutes when Town skipper Mark Smith received a red card. Running back following a corner Smith collided with the referee, who deemed the contact to be deliberate and issued a straight red.

But out of nowhere Town found an equaliser. Ricky Freeman's run down the right allowed him to feed the ball through to the feet of substitute Bradley Maguire, whose shot found the back of the net to spare Town's blushes.

CLEAR THAT BALL: Town keeper Rob Lindley punches clear under pressure from Sporting Bengal strikers

HOT WHEELS: Sittingbourne's riders picked up wins at the end of the season, but started badly

Warwick's fifth spot in championship final

SITTINGBOURNE Crusaders rider Danny Warwick finished fifth on Saturday at Rye House in the Conference League riders championship final.

One of the most prestigious meetings on the speedway calendar, the top 16 riders in the country at Conference League level meet in an individual event to crown the league's best rider.

Warwick was up against riders such as league number one and World Under-21 semi finalist Tai Woffinden, and twice British Under-15 champion Josh Auty.

This event has been won in the past by a former Sittingbourne rider David Mason.

Warwick scored nine point, which meant he finished fifth out of 16 riders.

He said: "It went OK and I am quite happy with fifth place overall. However, I am a bit upset with the last two races as the starts did not go according to plan."

Reflecting on his season with the Crusaders

he added: "It has been a bit disappointing but there have been a few good meetings, especially towards the end of the season where we managed to pick up a couple of wins.

"This year has been up and down for me but my high point was achieving a maximum 18point haul at Boston.

"It was really good to see the young riders coming through with encouraging rides form Jerran Hart and Aaron Baseby. Overall, the season got progressively better from meeting to meeting."

As for next season, Warwick is unsure if he will be riding for the Crusaders as it will depend on his Premier League commitments with Somerset

He will see out the season with the south west side this year.

SPORT IN BRIEF

Strokeforce go straight to the top of the league

FAVERSHAM Strikeforce broke their new kit in with a stylish win against a newly formed Prince of Wales side.

Billy Croucher and Luke Roberts bagged hat-tricks in a 6-1 win, to mark the start of the season for new coach Darren Mills.

The win put the side top of the Parker Steel East Kent Youth League after one game, with Strikeforce's Colts side just behind after a 6-4 win over Kennington.

The kit was bought through the Kent Soccer Company.

End-of-season high in sights of cricket club

GORE Court Cricket Club will look to end the season on a high when they play their final matches of the season this weekend.

The third XI have a big game to finish their league season.

They are currently bottom of Kent Cricket Feeder League East 1D, but have a chance to move up when they take on second-bottom side Pluckley on Saturday.

The first team finish away from home on Sunday with a friendly against Rainham seconds, which starts at 1pm.

Boss on hunt for new striker as Lee leaves

SITTINGBOURNE FC boss Steve Lovell is hoping to bring in a new striker to Bourne Park after Lee Browning moved to Dover Athletic last week.

Lovell was resigned to losing the talented attacker, who has scored twice this season.

He told the club's website: "Unfortunately finances control all football and this is another fact of that.

"I am in the process of trying to find a new forward and I have watched a couple in the last week, so watch this space."

Ladies league action starts with away visit

GORE Court Ladies first team begin league action on Saturday with a game against Bromley & Beckenham's second team.

The hockey side finished seventh in the East Women's League Division 2 South last season, and will look to get closer to the promotion spots this year.

Gore Court seconds also begin away from home as they travel to Belvedere and Bexleyheath, while the third team take on Sevenoaks' fifth team. The men's sides begin league action next weekend.
